

~~SECRET~~

Approved For Release 2000/08/22 : CIA-RDP61S00527A000200090019-7

16 July 1958

MEMORANDUM TO: 26X1bA9a Intelligence Information Staff, ORR
ATTENTION : [REDACTED]
THROUGH : Chief, D/S
FROM : Acting Deputy Chief, S/TD
SUBJECT : Your Memorandum dated 10 July 1958 Concerning a
"Guide for Free World Commercial Travelers Entering the Soviet Union on Business"

I. The following items, listed according to their current interest, are considered of major importance in the implementation of US and Free World economic defense activities. Information concerning a) the adequacy or inadequacy of Bloc supply; b) utilization of these materials in terms of program, end-use, and plants or facilities involved; c) Free World sources (countries and firms); d) priorities assigned by the Bloc to their procurement; and e) methods used to acquire the materials from non-Bloc sources are all of major importance to our operation.

1. Lithium-metals, compounds, ores and concentrates
2. Boron-metal, minerals, compounds, and mixtures
3. Beryllium-metal, ores, alloys, oxides and compounds
4. Zirconium-metal, alloys, compounds and manufactures
5. Advanced plastics, especially the following:
 - a. polyethylene
 - b. polypropylene
 - c. teflon (tetrafluoroethylene)
 - d. kel-F (trifluorochloroethylene)
6. Magnetic materials, all types and forms.
7. Nickel-metal, ores, concentrates and alloys

~~SECRET~~

Approved For Release 2000/08/22 : CIA-RDP61S00527A000200090019-7

- 2 -

8. Cobalt-metal, compounds, ores, residues and concentrates
9. Molybdenum-metal, compounds, ores and concentrates
10. Magnesium-alloys and powders
11. Quartz crystal, radio grade only
12. Cadmium-metal, ores, alloys and oxides
13. Titanium-ores, metals and alloys (excluding ferro titanium)
14. Mercury metal
15. Oscilloscopes (cathode ray)-wide band and multiple beam types only

25X1A9a

Distribution: Original & 1 - Addressee

1 - D/S
1 - Branch
1 - Section
1 - Requirement
1 -

25X1A9a

~~SECRET~~
~~SECRET~~